The Queen Anne Bed and Breakfast Becomes the King of Cool

May 25th, 2011 / Comments \(2\)

Think "Bed & Breakfast" and you probably envision grandma's floral decor, antiques and the smell of mothballs ruining the air. Not so at Denver's Queen Anne Urban Bed and Breakfast. Four of their rooms were recently converted by a group of Denver artists into gallery suites – becoming contemporary and distinct in style and character.

The four teams of artists included Tran and Josh Wills, Markham Maes and Natasha Lilipore, Tuyet Nquyen, and Rachel Znerold. You can see a bunch more pictures of the new gallery suites on Modern in Denver. Good stuff.
